1. Warning! This type of phone call is a scam!

According to Microsoft, cybercriminals are now turning to phone calls as a new method of attack. They call victims pretending to be computer security personnel from legitimate companies (including Microsoft), warn you of a security threat that could potentially be on your computer and then ask if you want a free security scan. If you say yes, they direct you to a website that allows them to remotely access your PC. Again, this is a scam! If you receive a call of this nature do not give the caller any valuable information or access to your PC!

2. The latest features of VMware vSphere: version 5.0

VMware's vSphere was already an industry leading virtualization platform for cloud infrastructure before version 5.0 entered the scene: increasing IT speed and agility while reducing total costs. With vSphere 5.0 we only see improvements including the highest levels of automation in the industry as well as the ability to create much larger VMs. Below is a list of 10 new features for vSphere 5.0 that are worth a looking over.

Scareware \scare-wear\, noun; application created by cybercriminals to look like antivirus software. Scareware attacks in three ways: 1) professional looking websites that seemingly sell antivirus software 2) pop ups to install software on infected sites 3) fake search results with videos that look like virus scans.

4. Announcements, news and events

1. Service-ticket raffle winner— Every month we hold a raffle with all of the completed service-tickets we receive. The prize is a Dunkin Donuts gift certificate. Last month's winner was Sandy Osbaldeston of Centerline Technologies. Congratulations Sandy!

2. Bryley to expand in Q4 2011 and Q1 2012 - Late in 2011 and completing in early 2012 Bryley Systems will be expanding its current location of approximately 1900 square feet by an additional 1600 square feet through the incorporation of 10 Main Street (the office to the left of our current 12 Main Street location). Bryley will build a connecting entry between the two locations and will improve the space at both sites significantly. Although expansion will be beginning soon, the duration of the progress is expected to lead into early 2012.

3. Bryley Referral Program—Those that refer Bryley Systems to potential clients automatically receive an thank you card with a gift certificate. If the referral results in a new client we offer these thank you options:

1. Free assistance with a computer or telephony problem (sent as a certificate)
2. A gift certificate of significant value
